CHILDREN AND GRIEF COURSE

This course is designed for those who would like to consider working with bereaved children. It is aimed at developing an understanding of the emotional impact of bereavement on children and young people, and identifying ways of supporting them in their grief. Depending on previous experience, additional training may be required.

Learning objectives:

- To gain and develop an understanding of issues that affect bereaved children and their families.
- To learn the skills of working with bereaved children.
- To develop awareness of children's needs in school and to promote education in bereavement.
- To acquire listening skills using play to facilitate grief work.
